It Can't Be "Did"

Frequently we are compelled to refuse to publish articles sent us that seem of great merit to the writers, and probably are, but we will not enter into any political or religious discussions. We are a local paper and not afraid to take a stand on anything that concerns our welfare, but on national, state and international and especially religious affairs, while we hold our opinions, we do not feel that we have a right to inflict them on our readers who pay us for local news, and get their national, state and religious news from other sources. The most radical of these articles are unsigned, or with fictitious names which would prove that the writers have not the courage of their convictions or would ask us to be responsible for assertions they themselves are afraid to voice. One which was received last week was almost a verbatim extract from Karl Marx, and is absolutely treasonable, and our loyalty to our country and our unswerving Americanism, would make us condemn it even though signed and vouched for. Save postage and time, your own and mine, by not sending such stuff to us.

"For Such, There is no Law"

Of course you have bumped against this fellow also—not the scriptural one, but the man that in his eagerness to get all that is coming to him, and a bit more, has no regard for the other fellow's rights. He will break into a waiting line or even take the head of it with impunity, and be offended if told he must wait his turn. He goes into the barber shop and proceeds to tell the waiting customers that he has a very important business engagement or possibly a funeral to attend, until some easy mark gives him his place, then after his work is done he will loaf around the shop half an hour telling funny (?) stories. If he drives a car he will "cut in" ahead of a hearse if he can, and "ball out" anyone who protests on his hoggishness in taking all the road. He will do all the little, small things in business that are just divided from stealing by an infinitesimal line, and excuse himself by the plea "that's business." In other words he wants, and too often gets, the best of every transaction, business, social or any other he engages in. If this fellow removed his underwear, one would find bristles on his spine, but his supreme nerve carries him through, as most people don't care to have any debate with him, and he roams the world as a nuisance to about everyone. What?—yes, there may be some women in this class also, but we are afraid to make the charge outright.

Ogden Park Activities

The moving picture program for Wednesday evening, Feb. 23rd, is under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. The program for the following week will star Charles Ray in "String Beans," a very entertaining picture. With this is a comedy of Arbuckle's "The Reckless Romeo."

The operetta, "Miss Muffett Lost and Found," was thoroughly enjoyed by the neighborhood. The children gave a very creditable performance. Miss Eileen Donegan sang the part of Mother Goose. Oliver Harris as Simple Simon ,and Cecil Alton as Tommy Tucker not only sang well but did clever acting. Good work was done by Jenny Cody as the milk-maid, Mary McHale as Polly the Cook, Alice Stockel as Old-Mother Hubbard and Blanche Marshall as Bo-Peep. Bertha Haas, Margaret Commeyer, Charles Duggan, Arthur Wernli and Clara Baratto also had solo parts. This is a good time for children who desire to join the chorus to enter.

The Ogden wrestlers defeated the team of the University of Chicago at Bartlett Gymnasium on Feb. 10th, taking five matches of seven. Erbenstein of Chicago forfeited to Miller of Ogden after six minutes of grappling. Zeller of Ogden pinned Agulnick of Chicago with a half nelson in six minutes. This was a fast and interesting match. Zulfer threw Burnett of Chicago after five minutes of quick work with a scissors hold. E. Bellquist of Ogden and Schirrmacher both won decisions. Heavyweight men and 105 and 115-pound men are needed to balance the Ogden team. Men who are wrestlers or who think that they can learn are invited to come to Coach Zulfer for points.

The Grammar School league of the Ogden Park division is progressing to a close. The games of Saturday, Feb. 12th, tie the Perkins Bass school and the Earle school for first place with a total number of 450 points. The Harper school is third with 426 points. The unlimited height team of the girls volley ball team defeated Hamilton Park Saturday afternoon, Feb. 12th. The Volley Ball league for the business men's class of the men's gymnasium starts for Ogden Park on Feb. 28th with a game with Fuller Park.

On Saturday evening, Feb. 12th, there were three large parties at Ogden to celebrate St. Valentine's Day. The force of S. Karpen and Brothers held a dance in the hall. The Woman's club of the Twenty-ninth Ward gave a family party in the north hall. Class 47 of the Englewood Baptist church also entertained.

There were two parties in the woman's gym, one on Monday evening, Feb. 14th, a costume affair, and one on the following evening.

Finley F. Bell will be the principal speaker of the evening. Violin solo, John Casey. Fancy dancing by pupils of Miss Dalton. Mr. John J. Conroy, president of the council, will be in charge, assisted by M. L. Hynes, F. B. O'Gallagher, L. J. Ryan, Hugh Coyle, John Casey, Thomas Woods, John Neissen and Robert Bonefield will act as ushers. Mrs. Anna Malloy, Thos. McLaughlin, Daniel Lenehan, Patrick Costello, Dr. Summers, John Devery and Patrick McMahon will have charge of the membership cards.

"The Rose Maiden" a Success

The rendition of the Rose Maiden at Lindblom High school was in every way satisfactory. Two performances were given, one on Thursday afternoon and the other Friday evening, Feb. 10th and 11th. There were 114 students who took part in this operetta and their singing and acting reflected great credit on the skill of the two directors, Miss Courtenay and Mr. Mason. For the first time in the history of American music this beautiful cantata has been dramatized and given as an opera. The scenery and costuming were unusual and the capacity audiences at the two performances voiced their qualified approval. Special mention should be made of the Dance of the Bees by five clever nimble-footed girls under Miss Klein's training. The accompaniment by the orchestra was almost professional in its excellence, and blended into the performance in an artistic way.

The whole affair was an overwhelming success and a cause of great gratification to the school and its many patrons.

Rev. R. Keene Ryan to Lecture on Washington

Rev. R. Keene Ryan, pastor of the Garfield Boulevard Presbyterian church, 55th and Halsted Masonic Temple, will give a lecture on Washington Sunday evening, Feb. 20th, beginning at eight o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Dee, 9922 Charles st., entertained the Loyal Twelve club and their husbands at a Farmers' Euchre Mush and Milk party last Saturday. The husbands voted it such a success that it would bear repetition and Mr. and Mrs. A. Tyler of Blue Island will give a similar party in the near future.

The Community Art Exhibit will be held at Community House, 1400 W. 103rd st., this afternoon instead of Valentine's Hall. Many beautiful and valuable pictures will be shown and it is hoped that the affair will be successful. The entire Ridge has been interested and many wonderful pictures have been loaned by residents for the occasion. Mrs. Wilbur Hicks, the center's director, is much pleased at the generous response and co-operation.

The Emergency

Editorial of the Chicago Daily News
Feb. 15, 1921

The machine is determined to defeat Alderman Fisher, who has voted consistently for economy and sound municipal finance. The voters of the 32nd Ward should rally to the vigorous support of their representative in the council.

Chicago cannot afford to lose the few strong, loyal and experienced aldermen who have survived all the overt and covert attacks of a ruthless spoils organization that wants no aldermen except those of the rubber stamp variety.

Special Bulletin
Municipal Voters League
Feb. 11, 1921

Alderman Fisher has done high class council service for fifteen years. His experience and ability make him one of the most valuable aldermen.

Nothing can beat him in the election except public indifference due to a belief that he will "somehow pull through." Everybody's business is nobody's. If Alderman Fisher is to be saved to the council the decent citizens must arouse themselves to the peril of the situation.

Important to
Rentpayers & Taxpayers
Feb. 22, 1921

If you approve the record of Alderman Fisher's fifteen years of public service, you should remember that unless you deposit that approval in the ballot box on Washington's birthday, Tuesday, Feb. 22, 1921, in the form of a vote for Alderman Fisher, then that approval can do him no good whatever in the present emergency. Judges and clerks count ballots only—not good intentions. Both men and women of all political parties can vote for Fisher without declaring their political party.

6½% AND SAFETY. Our first mortgages upon improved and producing farms have never lost a penny of interest or principal to our hundreds of satisfied customers. They are secured by a first lien upon indestructable property—agricultural land which yields annual and successive harvests which always find a ready market. These securities are non-fluctuating—in which respect they differ from a bond or a stock investment which is always affected by market conditions. Every farm mortgage which we make remains continuously under our supervision until it is paid off in full. Interest and principal are collected and remitted to you without charge. Such an investment is as simple as a savings account and pays over twice as much.

In a generation we have built up a reputation for care and conservatism which has brought us customers from over 30 states. We will be glad to send you our booklet and list of desirable mortgages without obligation.

The many friends of Dr. Nellie F. Johnson, of 7031 Wentworth ave., will be pleased to learn that she has entirely recovered from her recent illness.

Raising rents in this locality is causing much dissatisfaction and many appeals will be taken to the Real Estate Board committee. In some cases rents are reported as more than doubled. Why?

The police have been looking for a man who attempted to seize Halcia Harrington, a 14-year-old girl living at 7323 Emerald ave., as she was passing Hamilton Park Monday evening. He darted out of the shrubbery and chased the child half a block.

Ed C. Frantz, who is spending the winter in California, suffered a fracture or something of his right shin a week ago. Our informant could not say whether it was from making "bogie" at golf or escaping from the income tax collector. At any rate his friends hope he will be all right soon.

Mr. Anthonia Scapardine, of 7007 Perry ave., suffered a second stroke of paralysis Saturday and died early Sunday morning. He leaves beside his widow Mrs. Mary Scapardine, three daughters: Mrs. Frank Mahoney, Mrs. J. Crawley and Mrs. L. C. Ehlers. Funeral occurred Wednesday morning from St. Bernard's church. Interment at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Quite a familiar figure on the boulevards and drives in Los Angeles these days is the handsome "Cadillac" of Mrs. A. A. Lawder, of 6927 Perry ave. She is always accompanied by her two pretty daughters, Miss Evelyn and Miss Helen. They have been guests at the Roslyn Hotel the past six weeks. The young ladies are much given to outdoor sports and the early morning finds them on the bridle path for a canter before breakfast.

Hamilton Park Branch Library

We have received a large shipment of new books, and we have a duplicate of a great many of them in the rental collection, which can be rented for five cents for the first three days and two cents for every day after. Those of our patrons who are particularly desirous of reading the newest books have found our rental collection a great convenience. For a nominal charge of seven, nine or eleven cents one can enjoy the latest book and with the encouraging thought that you are helping pay for a book to be added to the library's permanent collection. Two of these books can be drawn at a time.

Following is a list of the books just received: Abdullah, Mating of the Blades; Anderson, Poor White; Blasco, Ibanez, Enemies of Women; Macauley, Potterism; Wilson, Hope of the World; Young, Undergrowth; Ostrander, How Many Cards?; Hope, Lucinda; Seltzer, The Trail Horde; Watts, The Noon-Mark; Dell, Moon-Calf; Deland, Old Chester Secret; Walpole, The Captives; Dixon, The Man of the People; Mason, How to Become an Office Stenographer; The Book of Dogs; Baker, Modern American Plays; Turner, The Frontier in American History; Chapman, What Bird is That?; Krauz's A. B. C. of Motoring; McMaster, The U. S. in the World War, 1918-1920; W. Wilson, The Hope of the World; Stockbridge, What to Drink; Crawford, In the Days of the Pilgrim Fathers; Untermeyer, Modern American Poetry; Untermeyer, Modern British Poetry; Safroni, Middleton, South Sea Foam; Tomlinson, The Sea and the Jungle; Shackleton, The Book of Chicago; Repplier, Points of Friction; MacQuarrie, Tahiti Days; Wells, Outline of History, 2 vols.; Carlton, Elementary Economics; Lodge, The Story of the Revolution; Official Automobile Blue Book.

The library is now open from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; and from 1 p. m. to 9 p. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Camp Fire Items

Tuesday evening at Lewis Champlain school the S. W. District had a grand council fire. There were ninety-seven girls present, and as the lines marched in ceremonial step it was a beautiful picture. The following camps were represented: Tatonekiya, Chittamango, Tinega, Miss Miles' group, Akiuhapi, Onaway, Besetruhwah, Adeiya, Miss Hurns' group and Kewanee Alan. Mrs. Rose Lave and girls of S. E. District were guests and we enjoyed Mrs. Lave's talk very much. We all missed Mrs. Stover and Mrs. Gordon, who were detained by illness. Honors were awarded to the different groups. Miss Margaret Musser was awarded a special honor. Belle Hirschinger, Burrea Dunsmore, Alice Boyd and Dorothy Steele were made fire makers. The field guardian was presented with two beautiful skins from the groups in her district of which she is truly proud and happy to be the possessor of. We surely had a wonderful council fire and in the near future will get together for a stunt party.

Mr. A. E. Stover, husband of our capable school guardian and father of one of our girls underwent a severe operation at the Englewood hospital Tuesday. He has the sincere wishes of all the guardians and girls for a speedy recovery to health.

We were surely glad to have our newer guardians with us and feel we have a splendid addition in Miss Hurn and Miss Miles to our circle.

Here is a splendid new song for your ceremonial meetings composed by Mrs. Paul Appell. From The Land of the Sky Blue Water (tune).

"From the land beside the water
There comes a Camp Fire Maid
In her heart is the summer of promise
For the future she's not afraid.

"She has sought and has found the beauty,
She gives pursues knowledge, is true.
Holds to health, loves her work, is happy—
Let this Camp Fire Girl be You."

Don't forget March 26th, the big masquerade party. Watch this column for particulars. You may take a girl friend.

Voters of the 32nd Ward Attention!

If our rents and our taxes are to be kept at a reasonable figure Chicago must keep its expenditures within its income and render to the people a full dollar's worth of service for every dollar of taxes collected.

ALBERT J. FISHER has long represented the 32nd Ward in the city's law making body and established a record for honesty and efficiency that has won him the hearty commendation of the Municipal Voters League and all other civic bodies interested in better government. Earnestly working in the interests of all, he has firmly refused to sacrifice the city's interests to any class or clique. Through his long service in the city's council Mr. Fisher has become a powerful influence for progressive legislation and a bar to the greedy grafter and the selfish promoter of private schemes. A staunch friend of the 50-ward plan, he has steadfastly worked to carry out the expressed wishes of the voters.

THE ALDERMANIC election February 22nd is to be a non-partisan contest free from party labels, the hopeful purpose of the new law being to place upon the discriminating voter the burden of selecting honest, capable men of experience to represent him in the City Council.

IT IS YOUR DUTY and ours to see that Mr. Fisher, who as a member of the Finance Committee is giving most of his time to the City Budget, is re-elected by an overwhelming majority. His splendid work in the City Council fully merits the hearty endorsement of every self-respecting citizen of the 32nd Ward. We must not permit his defeat by our lethargy.

REMEMBER, if any candidate receives a majority of the votes cast at the primary he will be elected, so it is economy to get out a full vote February 22nd.

EMPRESS THEATRE

The Empress theatre is drawing extraordinary crowds at this season. In fact they have gained over the attendance of the early summer when they closed for the heated season, and the beautiful new decorations are a source of delight as the effect upon the entrance is at once joyous and cheerful.

The programs arranged by Manager Mitchell are away above any before attempted in any outside failing source of enjoyment, and house, and the top liner attractions of the best "loop" houses are seen riety of entertainment is a never- instead of the regular routine of hoop rolling, a contortionist and a bar act, every variety of performance will be seen at the Empress -uropean musical features with grand musical features inating. From the best of grand opera to the jaziest jazz, from the dear old melodies of our grandmother's days to the latest songs of the period, and from every instrument from the piccolo to the latest saxaphone, the one stringed Chinese fiddle to the richest violincello and interspersed with these comes acts of wonder, athletic, and mystifying, as well as feats of strength and daring In all the Empress programs are calculated and studied to please everyone at all times, and blase indeed must be the man or woman who cannot enjoy an afternoon or evening at this excellent house The pictures are good first view features

Englewood girls are to have a bazaar in about six weeks. Are you going to help? Get your guardian to find out the plans from the Field Guardian, Mrs C C Thornburg

Woodlawn Theatre

Another splendid week is offered by Manager Karzas of the Woodlawn and the beautiful house is well earning its reputation for the best pictures first shown in this part of the city

As a special offering comes Fatty Arbuckle in Brewster's Millions, the most popular of stories which was well dramatized and still better pictorized This attraction begins Sunday continuous from 2 to 11 30, and runs to Wednesday inclusive The story concerns a young man whose two wealthy grandfathers have certain views concerning his training and their disputes result in the girl he loves and a million dollars to the young man and the immediate offer by one other that if the hero will spend the other grandfather's million in one year he will give him five million outright Brewster succeeds in spending the million but he loses the big proposition when he breaks the rules by marrying the girl But the girl has wisely invested a slight of the original million to save the day and all ends happily Betty Ross Clark is the girl Also a good two part comedy The News and Travelogues

On Thursday Friday and Saturday Feb 24th 25th and 26th the charming Irish star Mary Miles Minter is cast by Jack Holt will be seen in a new picture from the pretty play All Souls Eve This is a play dealing with a supernatural theme in a restrained manner in a way that will be sure to impress even those who scoff at ghosts etc It tells of the old Irish legend that on All Souls Eve the spirits of the dead may return to console and help those they left behind In the play the spirit of a dead mother returns and finds illness and desolation in the once happy home and enters the soul of the little Irish maid servant who transformed is able to give consolation and happiness to the husband and child Miss Minter has given a beautiful piece of acting in each role Both as the mother and the nurse-girl she gives a delicate interpretation with the shade of difference betokening the true artist It is undeniably one of her very greatest pictures Jack Holt is both winning and convincing as the sculptor-husband The scenes in which he makes a statue of Mother Love with his wife as a model are exceptionally engaging Little Mickey Moore made a big hit as the child Also a good comedy International News and topical pictures of the day

NEW REGENT

Another glorious week of success marks the record at the New Regent theatre at 6836-38 Halsted st The crowd visitors have become regular as all knowing they will see the best pictures first in this excellent house and the coming week is hundred beaming today and tomorrow Feb 23rd and Saturday Feb 24th and 25th with a special direct from the Lasky that most likable of all stars Charles Ray in Nineteen and Phyllis Mr Ray depicts from his usual country boy role and is seen as a dapper dude whose main attribute is his great delight Having been invited to a party by the village belle—played by Clare Horton—he is induced his meagre savings to purchase an elegant stove pipe hat and everything clothes It is while on his way to the party that Mr Ray discovers the burglar and captures him Upon his arrival at the party he receives much praise for his bravery but is little consolation to his spoiled hat is in ruins as a result of the escapade Also the unusually funny comedy Going Through the Live and Pathe News Strange a three only Eddie Polo in The King of the Circus

For Sunday Feb 27th continuous from 2 to 11 30 p m the New Regent will show the serial of Grit Darrow in an adaptation of Frank Merriwell's famous school days by Burt L Standish Merriwell is a brilliant portrayal of the college hero of the eternal feminine It amazingly discloses the innermost mysteries of a woman's nature by revealing the destinies of three modern types caught in the toils of a fascinating and passionate love problem It is magnificent in the grandeur of its settings the splendor of its gowns and the vivid personalities of its all star cast Also Buster Keaton in his best two part comedy Neighbors Pathe News and matinee only the great serial The Double Adventure'

As an extra special attraction for Tuesday and Wednesday Feb 22nd and 23rd matinee and night William DeMille's alluring production Midsummer Madness adapted from the great story 'His Friend and His Wife' The plot centers around two married couples who are close friends One of the wives is so lavish with the outward expressions of her love for her husband that he becomes a bit tired of her Now that she is so completely won he longs for new fields to conquer His friend's wife on the other hand is blessed with a husband who is more interested in business than in her she craves romance so the overloved husband and his friend's underloved wife are attracted to each other In a moment of folly they commit an indiscretion that nearly ruins four lives As an added attraction for Tuesday matinee only Prof McNulty's mammoth entertainment a big double Punch and Judy show Humpty Dumpty the big English pantomime and a free Punch whistle to every child who attends Lots of fun for the kiddies, bring or send them they will never forget this big bill

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

The seasons loodest Betty Hastings Razzle Dazzle will be presented at the Englewood next week starting Sunday Feb 20th And this announcement will without doubt cause the box office to work overtime supply the demands for seats The big new show is headed by Baker & Rogers vaudeville holdouts There is an all-star cast and the show is noted for laughing at the news of the day announcements have concluded the show to be one of the liveliest and cleanest burlesque shows that has been seen in many a day There is no plot and the number tips to this fact Starting the attractive string of laughs for laughs purposes only In this direction it has been remarkably successful You laugh all the time and when you are not laughing you sit back in your seat and [illegible] for a laugh or two The best part shows a very picturesque setting on sunny California with the old-fashioned well sweep and overhanging stoves And he burlesques shows the latest inventions in electrical devices and elaborate settings Something new and original something that has never been seen in this city before is The Diamond Decorated Elevated Runway considered to be the greatest invention of the age The company is without question the most competent that has ever been seen in burlesque and includes such well-known artists as Schad and Lee Lilth LaVerne, Dolly Rowold Lew Denny and Sam Micks and Baker and Rogers and besides there is a chorus of sixteen girls with a lot of burlesque vaudeville and dance and [illegible]

National Theatre

Great Play at the National

Seldom has one the opportunity to witness such a performance as the writer saw at the National a few days ago when he went to see Alice Brady's masterpiece Drifting After presented by the National Theatre Company With very few exceptions the stock company excelled the original cast Also the two minor points were not quite as good as when the play was given at the Garrick theatre last fall but aside from that it gave one the opportunity to see a company who had but one week to get ready for this show put it on in a manner that would do credit to any three dollar theatre that ever opened its doors Miss Dow in the role of Jennie originally played by Alice Brady gave a performance that was every bit as clever as the stars and Howard Hall the leading man did the best work of his stay at the National in the part of Captain Ted There are lots of skeptics on the south side but take it from us if you want to see a real show at moderate prices get the habit of going to the National

Next week's play will be a dramatization of the novel At the Mercy of Tiberius' which will give the company ample chance to show their ability

For Sunday Feb 20th continuous from 2 to 11 30 p m the first exclusive showing on the South Side of the super production Godless Men Lake a snarling tiger cub grown strong that turns upon its mighty sire so Red Paul one day tested the iron fists of his father the hardest roper of all the seven seas Soon he crawled away beaten but unawed to plot no her means to seize his ship and get the girl he craved His treacherous plan went well a knife flashed the skipper was down and then—you'll never forget the startling crashing climax of this picture Also Pathe News Mack Sennett comedy and matinee only The Flaming Disk

On Monday and Tuesday Feb 21st and 22nd matinee and night the greatest picture of the period 'Midsummer Madness' The picture portrays the dramatic results of the momentary infatuation of a pretty woman whose husband neglects her for another man Matters are complicated by the fact that her admirer is her husband's closest friend, and also the husband of her own girl-chum. For Tuesdays matinee only the greatest children's program ever offered Prof McNulty's mammoth entertainment a big double Punch and Judy show and 'Humpty Dumpty' the great English pantomime Also a Punch and Judy whistle to imitate birds and animals will be given free to each child Let the kiddies enjoy this show They will remember it all of their lives as you have done

On Wednesday and Thursday, Feb 23rd and 24th matinee and night comes the beautiful star, Mary Miles Minter, assisted by Jack Holt, in the tender and beautiful picturization of the great play, All Souls Eve' It is a play dealing with a supernatural theme in a restrained, natural way that will be sure to impress even those who scoff at 'ghosts' etc It tells of the old Irish legend that on All Souls Eve' the spirits of the dead may return to console and help those they left behind In the play the spirit of a dead mother returns finds illness and desolation in the once happy home and enters the soul of the little Irish maid servant who transformed is able to give consolation and happiness to the husband and child Also a humorous two-part comedy and International News

Pioneers to Celebrate

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Schriener of 418 62nd st. tomorrow will celebrate their 61st wedding anniversary, also Mr. Schriener's 87th natal anniversary. Their two sons and families will be the guests. Mr. Schriener came to Chicago 76 years ago and has lived in Englewood thirty-five years He is a prominent member of the Veteran Firemen's Association and this splendid old couple are among Englewood's most highly respected people. The Times wishes them as many happy returns as they may desire.

The correspondents who assist the editor of the Englewood Times in making up the weekly reading columns try to be correct in telling about the neighborhood happenings. Only such items are put in which are of interest. Two weeks ago we published a news item in regard to automobile injuries sustained by Mrs. Frank Johnson, 10232 Vincennes rd. The Gresham police station recorded the affair and we were given the news. Mrs. Johnson states that she fell near her home and was not in the accident. Perhaps there may have been another mishap elsewhere and a traveling officer confused the report.

ROSCOE (FATTY)
Arbuckle
BY ARRANGEMENT WITH JOSEPH M. SCHENCK
in
"Brewster's Millions"

It is easy for a poor man to spend his money, but it seems hard for a rich man to spend his Fatty Arbuckle, as Monty Brewster, discovered this fact when he went out to the race track, after receiving a present of a million dollars from one grandfather, and an offer from another grandfather that if he would spend the million in a year, he would give him five millions in stock Monte wanted to spend his money, so he bet on the slowest horse on the track, thinking he could lose about ten thousand But the slow horse won, and instead of losing, Monte won heavily

This is but one of the many funny complications you will see in this riproaring comedy

"ALL SOULS' EVE"
Adapted from the play by Anne Crawford Flexner

As Nora, the little Irish maid, Miss Minter gives a picture full of humor, charm and youthful sauciness. We first meet the Irish lass in her native cottage, follow her (via steerage) to America, and into her new environment as a nursemaid in the Heath household

As the troubled ghost of the dead Alice Heath, Miss Minter adds still another beautiful portrait to this unusual picture

The Busibugg meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Miss Marion Leonard of 7228 Vernon ave.

Members of the Englewood Woman's club and their friends enjoyed a tour through the Art Institute on Thursday, followed by a luncheon.

Mrs. L. Marbach of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting Mrs. John Lowe of 345 Englewood ave.

Classes 5 and 7 of the Englewood M. E. Sunday school gave a dinner to their families and friends at the church Thursday evening.

The adult classes of the Christian Sunday school will give a party in the church next Tuesday evening.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

Manager Harry Smith of the Marlowe Hippodrome has special attractions every week, as well as the very best on the Pantages circuit, and for this week, Saturday and Sunday, offers the Eight Lunatic Chinks, one of the greatest acts on the stage, as well as five other big acts and pictures. No matter what the state of the weather, the Marlowe is always comfortable, as the splendid ventilating system furnishes a constant stream of freshly washed air, heated in cold weather and cooled in warm weather. You must enjoy yourself when you go to the Marlowe and this week is a splendid opportunity of breaking in on it.

Beginning the coming week a new era of vaudeville bookings will govern at the Marlowe Hippodrome and the Pantages circuit will hereafter supply the talent. All lovers of sprightly vaudeville know that the Pantages bookings are the best procurable and with a variety and versatility that few agencies are able to compete with. Owing to the hour of our going to press being somewhat early, we are unable to give the attractions for this week, or for Saturday and Sunday, but both Mr. Koffman and Mr. Plough, the proprietors, are making the bookings, and it would be difficult to find two more capable or competent men in that line, both being producers and owners in the vaudeville line for many years and at the head of the list at that.

The regular program at the Marlowe is for Mondays, five splendid vaudeville acts, as well as the best of exclusive photoplays, a comedy and travelogues. For Tuesdays, they offer besides the regular program the song publishers' revue, as well as local song contests. On Wednesdays and Thursdays, five superb vaudeville acts and a first showing photoplay selected as well as comedies and news of the day. On Friday they have a fine professional vaudeville revue, including seven or more acts, introducing the latest and best from the big circuits. On Saturdays and Sundays, six of the highest class vaudeville travel pictures of standard merit. Complete changes of programs are made every Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. Continuous performances Sunday from 2 to 11 o'clock and always a children's matinee on Saturday afternoon.

Additional Ridge News

Mr. Ben Wilson, brother of Mr. and Mrs. A. Poulson, 11311 Lothair ave., was the guest of honor at a Sunday afternoon reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Franke, 8027 Throop st.

Mrs. P. J. Mather, 9400 Loomis blvd., entertained all the little people of the entire neighborhood at a valentine party last Monday afternoon. Games were played and songs sung and generous helpings of ice cream made a wonderful day.

Mr. John Slumbricks' remodeled car is a topic of great conversation. Johnnie's skill as a doctor for car ailments is shown in the wonderful improvements made on what was believed a hopeless car. We will have to start singing, "Johnny, get your wrench, etc.," if he keeps on.

"ALL SOULS' EVE"

CAN REAL LOVE COME TWICE?

His love for Alice, his wife, had been the biggest, finest thing in his life. And when he lost her, through the vile schemes of a jealous woman, he thought he could never be comforted. But suddenly he seemed to see in Nora the very image and spirit of his lost Alice! Was it just loneliness that drew him to her, or was there some strange invisible bond between Alice and Nora? See Mary Miles Minter in the two roles, Alice and Nora—the biggest picture of her career.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

There was a young man from the west
Who loved his girl with much zest.
So hard did he press her
To make her say "yessir"
That he broke three cigars in his vest.

The biggest lie of the day, "License applied for."

No, the bathing beaches will not be opened this week.

A giggling girl is apt to grow up a cackling woman.

We will celebrate dear old George's anniversary this year by a local election.

Casey says, "A woman thinks a man impertinent if he tries to flirt wid her, and indifferent if he don't."

"Most wimin marry a man," says Casey, "not to reform him, but to inform him."

Douglas tells me "A pretty girl can teach a fellow anything—but common sense."

"So you've met my son at college, eh?" "Sure; we sleep in the same philosophy class."

If you vote for the additional bond issue next Tuesday, don't have the nerve to kick about your rent being raised. You are doing it yourself.

It was Josh Billings who said, "It ain't so much people's ignorance that does the harm as their knowing so darn much that ain't so."

It used to be that we could make a landlord promise almost anything rather than have us move; now they double the rent, promise half a month's rent for re-decorating, and laugh at any threats to move out.

We may soon expect to read an item in the society columns something like this, "Mr. and Mrs. W. Wilson will remove early next month from their old fashioned residence to more modern quarters in upper Washington. A family named Harding from Ohio will occupy the old home of the Wilson's."

"Bill" McDonnell loaded the radiator of his new car with alcohol to prevent freezing, and as he is noted for "keeping the boilers hot," the odor left in his trail is that of a busted distillery. The joyful sniffs his passing evokes on Halsted st. is almost painful and some of the old timers have been known to chase after him in hopes of a leaking tank or something.

Pangs of jealousy were in Miss Coldfoot's heart when she heard that her late admirer had been accepted by Miss Lovebird, and when she happened to run across her in the bargain rush she could not resist giving Miss Lovebird a thrust. "I hear you've accepted Jack," she gushed. "I suppose he never told you he once proposed to me." "No," answered Jack's fiancee. "He once told me that there were a lot of things in his life he was ashamed of but I didn't ask him what they were."

Having passed the doctor, Patrick McGuire was taking a look around the camp which was to be his home for some months. He wanted to enter one of the tents and "pal up" with some one. He moved toward one of them and was about to enter, when: "Halt!! cried a sergeant. "You can't go in there." "And why not?" asked Pat. "It's the colonel's tent." "Then what's it marked 'Private' for?"

Listed among the passengers of a certain ship crossing the Atlantic was a man who stuttered. One day he approached the captain, and began to stutter. "Go and tell it to somebody else," said the busy man. The poor stutterer went in turn to every man of the crew, but none could understand him, so he returned to the captain. "Look here, my man," said the captain, "when you want to say something, you should sing it." The fellow stood still for a moment and then in a tragic voice began to sing: "Should auld acquaintance be forgot and never brought to mind? The blooming cook fell overboard and is twenty miles behind."

A good many years ago, when Englewood was "the Junction," we had a character who may be remembered by some of the old timers. Jim had been a wild chap in his day, but had "got religion" and quit swearing and led a good life generally and became a regular atendant of church and prayer meeting. At one time there was much suffering among the poor and the churches were doing what they could to relieve the poor, and a united meeting was held to further this relief work. Naturally there was prayer to open the meeting and Jim was among those called upon. He prayed long and eloquently and wound up with these words: "And oh, Lord, we'll try to look after the poor and needy in our midst, but we would beseech thee, in behalf of the widders and orpharts of the whole land, Lord, when Thanksgiving day dawns we pray they may all be supplied by thy bountiful goodness. We pray that thou may see fit to send every needy and afflicted family a whole barrel of flour, a barrel of meal, a barrel of sugar, a barrel of salt, a barrel of pepper—" He stopped, stuttering, at the magnitude of that last request, and was lost. "Oh, hell, that's too much pepper!"

Englewood Woman's Club

The Englewood Woman's club met Monday morning, Feb. 14th There was a large attendance. Mr. D. A. Clippinger gave an interesting talk on "The Making of a Song." His lecture was supplemented by musical illustrations given by Miss Evelyn Berger, contralto, and Miss Burrows, pianist.

In the afternoon the Princess Cantacuzene gave some interesting information regarding Russia, incidents leading up to her part in the World War and the present outlook. The princess has a pleasing manner and is a convincing speaker.

Helen F. Cahoon sang a group of songs, accompanied by Bertha Hagan.

At the next meeting Monday morning, Feb. 21st, R. E. Pattison Kline will conduct a class in public speaking. There will also be an open forum, topic, "The Division of a Woman's Time" In the afternoon there will be a short business meeting at 1:45 o'clock, after which will be given a Pageant of Literature. This elaborate spectacle of over one hundred persons will include the children and grandchildren of club members.

The club celebrated its twenty-fifth birthday anniversary at a luncheon held at the Edgewater Beach hotel. There were 671 persons present. The president of the club, Miss Marie Hesse, proved a capable toastmistress. Speeches were made by past presidents of the club.

Hamilton Park Woman's Club

At the meeting of the Art and Literature department next Tuesday morning Elmer A. Morrow and Oscar M. McMurray will tell how to furnish and decorate a modest home, as illustrated in the treatment of dining room and kitchen.

At 12:30 will occur the annual birthday luncheon.

Following the luncheon members of the club will present a one-act play, "The Flower Shop," by Winnifred Hawkridge, under the direction of Mrs. E. L. Cornell.

Recognize the Irish Republic

The Wolfte Tone Council of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic will hold a very special meeting Tuesday evening, Feb. 22nd, in St. Bernard's school hall, 66th st. and Stewart ave. This association is composed of all American and liberty-loving people who are anxious to see justice done to all small nations, and can see no valid reason why our government after recognizing fourteen republics can refuse to heed Ireland's appeal. This council welcomes as members those who are anxious to see the Irish nation recognized by our government and cordially invites them to attend the meetings on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month.

Next Tuesday evening there will be an address by the Hon. M. F. Girten and a special treat in a splendid band concert under the direction of Mr. John Ward.

Dr. White Will Speak on Color Problem

Sunday evening at the People's Liberal church Dr. R. A. White will deliver a lecture on "The Negro and the Nation: The Menace of the Color Problem." This announcement means a well filled church as the subject, being an unusual one, will be doubly interesting, being handled by one of the best informed and most eloquent speakers in our big city. Dr. White has given this subject much thought and the result of his study of the momentous question will be given at this time. No price of admission, and everyone cordially welcome. Dr. Horatio Dresser will speak at the morning service at 10:30.

Oakhaven Old People's Home Appeal

Responses to the Oakhaven appeal for $100,000 to build its community center at Western Ave. and 113th Pl., indicate interest in the plans is spreading to every part of the city. Contributions from business men and others are adding to the $34,000 fund now available so that the directors hope to commence the building early this summer.

Meetings are lending impetus to the campaign for funds which is under the direction of Mrs. George S. Haskell and a large committee of active workers. Serving with Mrs. Haskell are: Mesdames A. W. Axtell, Charles S. Deneen, William J. Roberts, Charles S. Clark, Guy Blanchard, Frank Loomis, Henry Hathaway, George W. Dixon, Henry A. Morgan, S. E. Thomason, William J. Graver, Frank J. Johnson, William S. Kline, Charles A. Brewer, Albert J. Fisher, L. K. Scotford, W. L. Gregson, Joseph R. Newton, F. M. Pon, John C. Young, Nonda K. Anderson, E. A. Warfield and Miss Marie Hesse. Mrs. Thomason and Mrs. Warfield entertained a group of women on Tuesday, Feb. 15th, at the residence of the former, 10450 Seeley Ave. Other meetings are arranged for the near future.

The Woman's Auxiliary met at the People's Liberal church, Stewart Ave. and 65th St., on Thursday to make further plans for the house to house visitation of possible donors.

Appreciation That We Appreciate

"Editor Englewood Times: Your generosity in inserting our church notice regularly is appreciated. Enclosed find list of new subscribers, and check to cover subscription for each for one year. Yours truly." Then follows a very nice list of the members of the church, and a comfortable check that changed our "liver and mush" diet to "turkey and pie" for several days.

Brave Officer Foils Bandits

Jeremiah O'Meara, the 60-year old special officer of the Chicago City Bank and Trust Co., saved $4,000 in cash deposits from the Bowman Dairy Co. last Thursday afternoon, which the messenger, August P. Caron, had just received at 66th St. and Wentworth Ave. Turning west the messenger had reached Ross ave. when three men armed with revolvers opened fire on O'Meara who was seated in the rear of the small car which Mr. Caron was driving. The veteran policeman quickly replied, placing his only six shots where they would do the most good, and is sure he wounded one of the robbers. O'Meara was shot three times in the side and back and was taken to St. Bernard's hospital where it was found none of the wounds were dangerous. The fusilade was heard at the Englewood police station, only two blocks away, and after firing at least twenty shots at the messenger and officer the robbers jumped into their high powered car and escaped.

Englewood Hospital Auxiliary

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Englewood hospital will meet at 2 p. m. in the nurses' home, 60th and Green Sts., Friday, Feb. 18th. A full attendance is desired. Arrangements will be completed for the benefit card party which is to be given in Englewood Masonic Temple Wednesday, March 2nd.

Good News
